

Employee Theft Awareness Quiz

1. What is your perception of workplace theft?
 - Almost everyone steals at work, so it must be ok.
 - No one really thinks about it, so it must be ok.
 - It's an employer problem, not an employee problem.
 - It's a serious "social" crime that needs to be stopped.
2. How much dollar value in goods and services do you think was stolen from America's workplaces in 2002?
 - $600 million dollars
 - $60 billion dollars
 - Not enough to get excited about
3. How many employees steal at their workplaces?
 - 1 out of 3
 - 2 out of 4
 - 1 out of 10
4. How would you rate the cost of workplace theft?
 - It is all part of doing business, and employers deduct it as a tax break.
 - It is passed on to consumers in higher prices
 - It does not affect my pocketbook
5. Workplace theft can cause:
 - Failed businesses
 - Loss of jobs
 - Low pay increases
 - Poor employee benefits
 - Increase in prices for both goods and services
 - None of the above
 - All of the above
6. Do most employees report workplace theft when they see or know about it?
 - Yes
 - No
7. Why do you think employees are reluctant to report theft?
 - Employers won't do anything about it
 - Apathy on the part of employees, they don't care
 - The anti-snitch attitude prevails throughout society, even at the workplace.
 - Afraid of repercussions if someone learns the identity of the employee reporting the theft

8. As a parent, would you encourage your child to report workplace theft to his or her employer?
- Yes
 - No
9. Do you think stealing at the workplace should be ignored?
- Yes
 - No
10. Which is more important?
- Being loyal to your principles
 - Being loyal to dishonest employees
11. Do you believe in the saying, "It's The Right Thing To Do?"
- Yes
 - No

Answers to Employee Theft Questionnaire

1. A serious "social crime" that should be stopped.
2. $60 billion
3. 1 out of 3 employees steal at their workplaces
4. Theft of goods and services are passed on to consumers in the form of higher prices
5. All of the above
6. No
7. All responses are correct
8. This question entails a character evaluation response. How you answer the question is a reflection of what you value.
9. This question entails a character evaluation response, although it is better to address the situation then let it go unchecked.
10. This question entails a character evaluation response. How you answer the question is a reflection of what you value.
11. This question entails a character evaluation response. How you answer the question is a reflection of what you value.